

SHALEN TEJWANI

West Orange, NJ

(669) 272-6116 | Shalentejwani@gmail.com

Highly skilled project manager with a proven track record in overseeing complex projects, managing cross-functional teams, and ensuring timely and efficient delivery. Transitioning into cybersecurity, bringing expertise in risk management, client communication, and process optimization. Eager to apply my project management skills and technological expertise to enhance security frameworks and safeguard organizational infrastructure.

Professional Certifications

CompTIA Security+ SY0-701 Certification	January 2025
Google Cybersecurity Certification	November 2024
Simplilearn PMP Certification	March 2018

Professional Experience

Senior Project Coordinator at Rebarber Enterprises, South San Francisco CA	June 2019 – July 2024
Project Coordinator at Rebarber Enterprises	July 2018 – June 2019

- Led 100+ projects with over 30 commercial general contractors, generating over $20 million in revenue
 - Partnered with cross-functional teams including project engineers, front-line laborers, field office managers, etc.
 - Responsible for material logistics, project milestones, and quality assurance from project inception to completion
- Responsible for client communication including project goals and timelines, and risk identification & mitigation
- Built strong rapport with clients by sharing timely insights to support transparency, customer satisfaction and retention
- Successfully identified and implemented multiple process improvements throughout the company to increase accountability, organization, and efficiency by 30%
- Spearheaded the development and implementation of employee productivity tracking initiative, which led to greater transparency and efficiency in the field
- Managed and safeguarded employee accounts and credentials to ensure secure access and data protection

Project Manager at Position ² Inc., Santa Clara CA	Oct 2016 – July 2018
---	----------------------

- Responsible for key client projects, totaling $5 million in revenue in 2018
 - Successfully managed two of the largest client accounts, Rheem and Fujitsu, by building credibility and establishing rapport through candid communication with clients at various levels
 - Ensured timely delivery of projects by coordinating multiple large international teams (30+ people per account) through daily review of project timelines, KPIs, and other project milestones while continuously ensuring quality control
- Lead project planning and multi-team coordination efforts by building project plans and activities as per statements of work (SoW)
 - Developed project plans for all activities in the SoWs, including detailed Gantt charts spanning the entire length of the projects (up to a year) which map out all project activities and milestones

Marketing and Sales Manager at Leroc Media Services, Bangalore, India	Dec 2015 – June 2016
---	----------------------

- Developed advertising strategies and implemented recommendations to meet key marketing needs for customers such as Lenovo, Microsoft, AMD, and Chai Point, with quarterly revenues of $150k
 - Developed the company's website including the creation of content, designs, front-end UX and back-end coding using WordPress

ITS Help Desk at Syracuse University ITS Service Center, Syracuse NY	2009 – 2013
--	-------------

- Provided front-line helpdesk support to students, faculty, and staff for IT-related issues. Daily tasks involved; resolving technical problems & network problems, managing support tickets, debugging, imaging, wiping & preserving data, virus & malware removal, phone support, training, and customer support.
-

EDUCATION

Alliance University, Bangalore, India
Business Management	2013 – 2015
Syracuse University, Syracuse, NY
Information Technology & Global Enterprise Technology	2008 – 2013