Experience

COGNIA – Remote2021 – 2023

English/ELA Content Specialist

Led teams of up to 20 scorers in grading standardized tests for multiple grade levels, core subject areas, and state clients. Maintained a rapid and accurate scoring rate. Provided substantial training to educate scorers on various project requirements. Reasoned and discussed scoring logic and grading criteria during arbitration. Constantly engaged with coworkers and staff in a remote environment (particularly through Zoom and videoconferencing). Interacted with education clientele with the utmost respect. Received 3 promotions (from Scorer to Scoring Team Leader, from Scoring Team Leader to Scoring Supervisor, and from Scoring Supervisor to English Content Specialist) in the span of 2 and a half years.

NUANCE TRANSCRIPTION SERVICES – Remote 2019 – 2020

Medical Scribe

Transcribed physician and medical specialist audio recordings into fully-fleshed internal documentation. Assisted in the maintenance of electronic health records (EHR) for medical institutions and personnel. Worked independently and in a fully-remote environment.

UNITED PARCEL SERVICE – Louisville, KY 2016 – 2018

Very Large Multinational (VLM) Classification Specialist

Rated and classified incoming international shipments with appropriate tariff ascription. Specialized in Boeing and Amazon.com accounts and procedures. Fast-paced. Worked in an office setting with a wonderful team.

GE APPLIANCES, A HAIER COMPANY – Louisville, KY 2016 - 2017

Technical Writer

Produced technical writing documentation for a massive internal training overhaul. Owned and maintained documentation for several different departments from initial draft to publication. The success of the project provided the project manager a significant internal promotion.

LOUSVILLE.COM – Louisville, KY 2016

Writing and Editing Intern

Wrote and edited articles for Louisville.com as an intern. Assisted in a significant aesthetic and structural update to the website. Interviewed and reported various articles from local musicians, politicians, and business owners. At the time of the internship, I held the highest-viewed article on the website (“Where to dine late at night in Louisville”).
