Dear Hiring Manager;

I am writing to express my interest in the Graphic Designer position. With my extensive design background, and experience with clients in a diverse range of industries, I feel I would be a great fit for this position.

Throughout my career, I have worked as an graphic designer on a wide variety of projects and successfully delivered impactful designs and visual storytelling that resonate with target audiences. This includes print, digital and social media design, marketing collateral, outdoor advertising, trade show graphics, packaging, branding and brand development. My recent work history includes work for Roku, Kia Motors, LiveNation, Porsche, HBO Max, Disney, Hulu, Amazon, and Netflix. Other companies and brands I've done work for include: Hyundai Capital, NBC/Universal, SONY, FOX, Morongo Casino, NAI Capital, Red Bull, KB Home, Laserfiche, Taylor Made Golf, VCA, The Ben Hotel, Keller Williams, and many more.

Here are a few other reasons why I would be a great fit for this role:

- ▶ Versatile background includes work with ad agencies (Bergmann Zwerdling Direct (BZD), Kastner & Partners, Siltanen & Partners, Liquid Advertising, One Eighteen Advertising, Zambezi, Daily Advertising, Frontline Communications) as well as on staff, freelance, and contract work.
- ▶ The ability to work on or off-site, or on a hybrid work schedule - independently or as part of a team.
- ▶ Strong background in project management (Basecamp, Slack, Trello, Asana, 1Rise, Skype, and more).
- ▶ Drive and desire to produce inspiring visual results and bring new ideas as needed, concept through completion.
- ▶ Keen work ethic built upon personal strengths of organization, versatility and artistic vision.
- ▶ Relevant educational background in art and graphic design.

I look forward to discussing this position and my experience at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Scott Mosher // Graphic Designer / Los Angeles, CA // email: dude@scottmosher.com // LinkedIn • Website
