

VP and SME with over 20 years of expertise in asset management and data quality, specializing in leading strategic asset master applications for financial instruments. Demonstrates innovative solutions in data management and compliance, collaborating with industry-leading vendors to enhance business alignment and regulatory reporting. Proficient in project management and data integrity, with a focus on driving business solutions and improving project delivery through strategic partnerships and advanced technical skills.

Employment history

VP | SME & Product Owner of AWM asset master, JPMorgan Chase, Jul 2017 - Present

JC, NJ

- Lead strategic asset master app for FI, EQ, F&O, enhancing data quality and business alignment.
- Collaborate with vendors like Bloomberg to ensure accurate data for stakeholders.
- Manage data book, defining vendor attributes and ensuring data integrity.
- Oversee data quality for regulatory reporting, ensuring compliance.
- Guide tech team in sprint planning, improving project delivery.
- Lead strategic asset master implementation across FI, EQ, and F&O products, partnering with stakeholders to enhance data quality and drive business solutions.
- Direct data management operations, overseeing vendor relationships with Bloomberg and DTCC while maintaining comprehensive data lineage for AWM assets.
- Orchestrate monthly Product Cabinet meetings, aligning business stakeholders and managing sprint planning for legacy and strategic AWM applications.
- Spearhead regulatory reporting validation for DOL and MIFID2, while implementing strategic solutions for front office trading requirements.
- Drive asset master adoption roadmap development, collaborating with trading desks, compliance, risk, and technology teams for enhanced data solutions.
- Lead enterprise-wide asset master platform implementation across financial instruments, driving data quality improvements and strategic business alignment

AVP | GFICC & Liquidity trade Support, JPMorgan Chase, Mar 2011 - Jun 2017

NY

SME of Fixed Income, money Market, Futures and Options trading technology and in-house trading applications

- Manage BAU Portfolio management stability reports for FI, F&O and EQ across Global team (Columbus, London, Hong Kong, and Mumbai).
- Support Fixed Income Portfolio Management/Trading applications, Middle Office, Compliance and Data Management applications (in house & third party).
- Ownership of control functions, and post execution risk management across fixed income business.
- Support and review all stages of US & Europe Corporate actions and ensure data quality of PTC, FI trade data and MO reports.
- Manage internal team projects, schedule, and resource management of 10 member US team and 8 member India ASD team.
- Release Management: Conduct weekly release meeting with AD team and coordinate with upstream / downstream with release.
- Provide Level 2 support: Shell Scripting for automation.
- Develop SQL queries for complex reports and troubleshooting trade and MO data recon issues.
- Conduct weekly/monthly trend analysis with management team and deploy new Change Requests and Bug Fix Releases.
- Coordinate BCDR tests for all applications along with DBAs and UNIX SAs.
- Implement Batch scheduling using Control-M Enterprise Manager.

Employment history

LRC IT Lead – Market Risk VaR Engine & Global Position Collector, Deutsche Bank, Jan 2009 - Feb 2011

Wallstreet, NY

- Prioritize backlog data quality issue and enhancements by collaborating with technology, Compliance, Regulatory reporting, MO Operations & FO trading teams.
- Data/process migration of Legacy Portfolio Management application to the new in-house system.
- GPC collects, aggregates, and stores incoming data from Genie and other applications and reports on it. The data is used to report Market Risk figures and run VaR calculations using another.
- Production support/maintenance of database in Oracle 10g on UNIX platform.
- Deployed new Change Requests and Bug Fix Releases.
- Coordinated DR along with DBAs and UNIX SAs.
- Implemented Automated Batch scheduling using Control-M Enterprise Manager.
- Coordinated with the offshore team to fix production issues, development, and performance enhancement.
- Involved in data and process migration of legacy vendor application to the new in-house system.

RTB Support Analyst - Db Aurora –Market Risk-RPL, EDGE, Deutsche Bank, Jan 2007 - Dec 2008

London, UK

- EDGE is the Market Risk execution engine, supporting bank-wide fully correlated VaR calculation and support calculations/services: basis conversion (par to zero, zero to par) of risk sensitivities for VaR calculations.
- Application support activities/customer issue resolution.
- Coordinated new Change Requests and Bug Fix Releases.
- Regression testing using QTP and other custom tools.
- Implemented automated batch scheduling using Crontab.
- Performance tuning/Query Optimizations of existing Stored Procedures.
- Used Flashback Table, Transactions, Versions Query, Query, and drop techniques for recovery of tables and data.
- UNIX Shell scripting was used for audit purposes and for running the PL/SQL scripts.
- Performed application database upgrade from Oracle 9i to Oracle 10g.
- Coordinated with Offshore resources in handling production issues and development.
- Participated in the End User Training.
- Documented all requirements received from business team, optimized for effective solutions.

RTB Support Analyst - Db Aurora –Market Risk-RPL, EDGE, Deutsche Bank, Aug 2006 - Dec 2007

Bangalore, India

- EDGE is the Market Risk execution engine, supporting bank-wide fully correlated VaR calculation and support calculations/services: basis conversion (par to zero, zero to par) of risk sensitivities for VaR calculations.
- Application support activities/customer issue resolution.
- Coordinated new Change Requests and Bug Fix Releases.
- Regression testing using QTP and other custom tools.
- Implemented automated batch scheduling using Crontab.
- Performance tuning/Query Optimizations of existing Stored Procedures.
- Used Flashback Table, Transactions, Versions Query, Query, and drop techniques for recovery of tables and data.
- UNIX Shell scripting was used for audit purposes and for running the PL/SQL scripts.
- Performed application database upgrade from Oracle 9i to Oracle 10g.

Employment history

Team Lead - Central Reporting Cell / ICES, Indian Customs Department, May 2005 - Jul 2006

India

- Coordinated with Offshore resources in handling production issues and development.
 - Participated in the End User Training.
 - Documented all requirements received from business team, optimized for effective solutions.
- ICES is a software package, which accepts customs documents electronically from the Custom House Agents, Importers and Exporters for processing by Customs Officers. The Bills of Entry and Shipping Bills can be submitted by EDI over NICNET, the nationwide computer network of NIC.
- Involved in design of data acquisition and created technical specifications for the application.
 - Performance Tuning and Query Optimizations of the existing Stored Procedures.
 - Designed the analysis and detailed design document and involved in developing the Data Stage logic, planned, and developed Server Jobs and Data Stage Basic routines.
 - Used Crontab for scheduling the jobs and batch job for loading the data.
 - Involved in taking regular database backups using Export/ Import utility.
 - Used Dynamic SQL using executes immediate, Bulk Load, VARRAYS and Object types.
 - Generating Adhoc reports from Business User using data reporting tools and SQL.
 - Involved in making new releases of the application.
 - Extensively used Table Partitions, Index Partitions to replace the existing archival process to purge the expired offers in a timely fashion and improve the performance of the application.

Education

Bharathiyar , Coimbatore, India, 2001 - 2004

Master of Computer Applications

2000

Bachelor of Science

Courses

Oracle Database 11g: SQL Fundamentals

Oracle

ITIL V3 Foundation Certification

ITIL

Skills

Oracle PL/SQL	Sybase	UNIX	Tableau
Excel	Alteryx	Data Management	Project Management
Business Analysis	Asset Management	Risk Management	SQL
Data Quality			