

Steven C Kwan

53 Summer Street Edison, NJ 08820 • (917) 991-0978 • skwan168@yahoo.com

SUMMARY: Experience professional with 20+ years in Project Management & Business Analysis role. Strong understanding in software development lifecycle utilizing both Agile and Waterfall development methodologies.

EXPERIENCE:

Morgan Stanley – New York (Apr 2022 to Present)

Wealth Management – Project Manager / Business Analyst

- Project Manager / Business Analyst who works closely with the Senior Risk Officers to understand business requirements and our technology partners to define functional requirements for the future state Policy Exceptions technology platform.
- Experienced in full system development lifecycle from project initiation, requirements gathering and user acceptance testing through implementation.
- Experienced in managing complex projects from inception to delivery.
- Documented overall test plan and ensured full traceability of documented business requirements and solution design elements through implementation.
- Experienced in writing test scripts and test cases in Quality Center.
- Redesigned the entire Policy Exception application/platform in PEGA to keep track of 13,000 Policy Exceptions requests based on the new approval workflow which includes record keeping, audit history, escalation processes, supervisory control for the Field Risk Officers, Legal Officers and Audit Officers.
- Worked with the Data Sensitivity team to implement the remediation strategy for Policy Exceptions data sensitivity Gaps including the migration of entitlements to a more secured environment for the Personally Identifiable Information.
- Worked closely with the Data Warehouse project so the data is consumed to display in Tableau Dashboards and DataIKU Reporting.
- Onboarded new E*TRADE users into the Policy Exceptions technology platform.
- Executed end-user testing and identified gaps in requirements between business and functional specification.
- Provided demo and training on functionality as well as documentation including procedures and user guides.
- Worked in a fast-pace environment while dealing with multiple priorities.
- Communicate effectively to all stakeholders from senior management to project team members.

HSBC – New York (Oct 2021 to Mar 2022)

Wealth Management – Business Analyst / Product Owner

- Lead Business Analyst / Product Owner working within an agile/scrum development process.
- Client facing digital journeys experience in Wealth Management.
- Worked closely with business and technology teams to ensure business needs are clearly understood and the technology implementation meet the needs and expectations of the business.
- Worked closely with UI/UX team to develop mockups/wireframes for both browser and Mobile iOS/aOs.
- Knowledgeable in Confluence, JIRA and proficient in creating user stories in JIRA
- Managed multiple priorities and time sensitive deliverables.

Amazon – New Jersey (Feb 2020 to Sept 2021)

FBA Seller – Self-employed

- Conducted extensive market research for product selection as well as thorough risk analysis for target niche on the current Amazon platform prior to purchase goods from overseas vendors.
- Created and formed relationships with vendors (mostly from China) by negotiating process as well as service terms.
- Optimized product listings by updating product images, carefully researching keywords, engaging product listings, and descriptions to stand well against competitors.
- Performed customer follow-ups to ensure satisfied buyers and positive product reviews.

UBS – New Jersey (Oct 2017 to Nov 2019)

Wealth Management – Business Analyst / Scrum Master

- Lead Business Analyst for Portfolio Management Reporting Service Line.
- Managed the transformation of the team from Waterfall methodology to Agile methodology.
- Experienced in full systems development lifecycle from project initiation, requirements definition and user acceptance testing through implementation.
- Experienced interacting with vendors and business partners that participate in the design process.
- Experienced in designing and creating presentations and communications for executive audience.
- Utilized data manipulation with tools such as MS Excel, Access, BI tools.
- Solid working experience with Process Improvement and Change Agent.
- Defined and documented the Current State / Future State Agile Operating Models.
- Created, managed, and reported against specific improvement projects.
- Assessed business processes, identified improvements, as well as developed requirements and solutions.
- Scrum Master for two international team of developers & QAs located in USA and India.
- Managed the team's backlogs, assigned work to team members and prioritized team's tasks.
- Proficient in creating user stories in JIRA tool.
- Communicated effectively to all stakeholders, from senior management to project team members.
- Proficient in Microsoft PowerPoint, Project, Visio, Excel, Word, Access, and SQL.

UBS – New Jersey (May 2016 to Sept 2017)

Investment Banking – Business Analyst

- Responsible for the Front Office, Canada and Mexico T+2 shortened settlement cycle initiative. This was a street-wide initiative to shorten the settlement cycle for Equities, Corporate Bonds, Munis, Unit Investment Trusts and all related derivatives from T+3 days to T+2 days. This large-scale front to back transformation places USA at par with majority of the global markets that were already trading on a T+2 settlement cycle.
- Produced complex T+2 Industry planning and executed initiatives involving multiple lines of business including the front-to-back trade lifecycle coordination.
- Developed T+2 business requirements specification documents for multiple workstreams.
- Worked closely with IT developers and QA during the smoke testing and connectivity testing of various front-to-back workflows prior to the start of the industry testing.
- Performed T+2 impact analysis for IBIT Cash Equities Front Office IT systems related to T+2 Migration (US and Canada).
- Worked closely with Front Office Group, IT developers and QA during the smoke testing and connectivity testing of various front-to-back workflows prior to the start of the industry testing.
- Managed the front-to-back testing included Broadridge, DTCC, CDS and various test exchanges.
- Documented the workflows needed for the industry front-to-back testing including the cross-border workflows.
- Executed end-user testing and identified gaps in requirements between business and functional specification.
- Managed timely execution of plans and provided regular updates to project stakeholders.
- Documented the workflows needed for the industry front-to-back testing including the cross-border workflows.
- Responsible for the daily reporting of the industry testing updates for multiple workstreams.

CREDIT SUISSE GROUP – New York (July 2014 to Dec 2015)

Investment Banking Reference Data – Business Analyst / Product Owner

- Product Owner in the Business Development area and Global Client Solution Advisor of Clariant Global LLC. Clariant is a company founded by The Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation (DTCC) along with six leading banks to help firms meet client data and documentation needs for internal on-boarding as well as comply with a broad range of regulatory requirements.
- Proven track record for designing, building KYC compliance and client on-boarding solutions.
- Experienced in full systems development lifecycle from project initiation, requirements definition, and user acceptance testing through implementation.
- Experienced in formalizing rough wireframe sketches into more polished & concrete design proposals.
- Responded to requests from senior management and developed data quality dashboards and management reports.
- Defined data quality rules to measure and to ensure the accuracy, consistency, and completeness of the governed dataset.
- Comfortable working with large amount of data and ability to understand complex data structures.
- Conducted in-depth analysis of client profiles to build business case for developing the business and understanding target markets for future product builds (including pricing, revenue streams and service models).
- Applied database querying and Excel skills to gather, segment, summarize, and present key information in PowerPoint.
- Utilized data to answer key questions regarding the business and drive strategic recommendations.
- Performed root cause analysis on data quality related issues prior to on-boarding clients to Clariant applications.
- Executed end-user testing and identified gaps in requirements between business and functional specification.
- Provided demo and training on the new functionality as well as documentation including procedures and user guides.
- Managed client on-boarding, reference data systems, data governance and data quality.
- Experienced in building web-based applications.

J.P. MORGAN CHASE – New York (June 2012 to June 2014)

WCOB (Wholesale Client On-boarding Program) – Project Manager / Business Analyst

- Experienced Project Manager / Business Analyst who worked closely with the business stakeholders to understand business requirements and worked with our technology partners to define functional requirements for future state development plans of client on-boarding technology platform.
- Worked with senior technology, compliance, and business owners to ensure initiatives are properly prioritized.
- Managed timely execution of plans and provided regular updates to project stakeholders.
- Ability to work in tight deadlines and to prioritize several conflicting and frequently changing priorities.
- Ability to lead cross-functional teams and interact with all levels of multiple organizations.
- Ability to present and absorb complex ideas quickly and accurately.
- Experienced managing complex projects from inception to delivery.
- Experienced in full systems development lifecycle from project initiation, requirements definition, user acceptance testing through implementation.
- Experienced in writing test scripts and test cases in Quality Center.
- Documented overall test plan and ensure full traceability of documented business requirements and solution design elements through documented test cases.
- Managed multiple priorities and time sensitive deliverables.
- Identified process and control improvement.
- Proficient in creating user stories in JIRA tool.
- Supported the transformation of the team from Waterfall methodology to Agile methodology.
- Attended internal and external Agile training classes.

Steven C Kwan

53 Summer Street Edison, NJ 08820 • (917) 991-0978 • skwan168@yahoo.com

J.P. MORGAN CHASE – New York (June 2010 to May 2012)

NAVPOP (NAV Production Optimization Program) – Business Analyst

- Lead Business Analyst for Project Trident where I worked closely with the Hedge Fund Client Services Team with onboarding a major external hedge fund client.
- Documented the Current State Operating Model of the client and the Target State Operating Model prior to onboarding the client. This was accomplished by meeting with client operating team at client site.
- Identified existing client UDTs (User Define Tool/Exception Processes) and the incremental changes needed to add to our processes in our Target Operating Model.
- Provided the sales team with the new on-boarding documentations and Target State Operating Model as potential sales documents for future perspective clients.
- Lead Business Analyst for Client On-boarding/Account Setup workstream which focused on global standardization, centralization, and automation of Account Setup.
- Improvement and Change Agent.
- Attended Hammer and Company training classes for Business Process Reengineering.

CHUBB INSURANCE – New Jersey (July 2009 to May 2010)

Process Management –

- Executed projects as senior analyst with technical skills.
- Drove the completion of key plans and activities to achieve performance standards; set new standards above those already achieved.
- Delivered results consistently with little or no direction; made strong contributions to multiple teams.
- Analyzed and communicated the results of the Provision Staffing Workflow process, mapping and simulations for improvement and capacity to senior management.
- Supported the Staffing Model Validation initiative, meeting all interim and final milestone dates, and improving process and results.
- Managed process improvements and procedural changes.

ACCESS MEDICAL – New Jersey (June 2008 to June 2009)

Medical Group – Business Systems Analyst

- Responsible for systems data conversion of existing billing systems to client server environment.
- Experienced interacting with vendors and business partners that participate in the design process.
- Experienced in writing technical and business specifications.
- Documented business and functional requirements.

SOCIETE GENERALE – New Jersey (July 2007 to May 2008)

Corporate and Investment Banking Group – Business Process Owner

- Experienced in leading the facilitation of in-person, virtual meetings, and collaborative problem-solving sessions.
- Prepare and maintain a comprehensive project plan outlining all project deliverables, milestones, and resources.
- Supervised 2 staff members and responsible for the day-to-day function of the Inter-company Reconciliation System.
- Conducted regular project meetings to ensure adherence to project plan and milestones.
- Responded to requests from senior management to deliver presentations of analysis, trends, metrics, and results.
- Communicated business requirements, lead project delivery and implementation with technology teams.
- Developed test plan, users' acceptance criteria, conduct UAT, and user acceptance testing.
- Developed business requirements document, coordination with IT, performed UAT testing of all system enhancements and upgrades.
- Analyzed business processes, user requirements and developed functional specifications for IT.
- Managed multiple priorities and time sensitive deliverables.
- Identified process and control improvements.
- Proper management and escalation of all projects.
- Comfortable with quick turnaround time for engagement schedules including travel.

CITIGROUP INC. CONTROLLERS DIVISION – New York (September 1997 to June 2007)

Global Corporate and Investment Banking Group – Senior Programmer Analyst

- Developed regulatory and P&L reporting website for Futures and FX Trade Support.
- Created web-based application for managing feeds into the Company's financial information systems.
- Hands-on experience building solutions in SQL databases.
- Represented Futures and FX Product Control on cross-functional team for migration to SunGard's GMI system, a global back-office clearing and accounting software system for exchange-traded derivatives, futures, and options.
- Served on project teams that implemented various new applications within the development group of Financial systems.

EDUCATION: Graduated with Honors, Bachelor of Science Major in Finance – ST. JOHN'S UNIVERSITY

REFERENCES AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST